Open Our Eyes, Lord ~ hymn #383

~ Prayers for the People ~

Lord, too often the things of this world subtly slip into our minds and try to cover our hearts with despair. These times of weakness can be a time of growth, if we will only look to You to deliver us from the snares and traps set before us. Lord, when we fall; may You restore to us the joy of Your salvation and remind us of the new heart we have been given and of how we must guard it for it is the wellspring of life. Lord, to the many that are struggling: may they look to you in their pain, in their suffering lean on You, and in their sorrow seek Your face and compassionate embrace.

Thank you, Lord, for hearing this humble prayer. Amen
