The Sacredness of Trust- through Faith

"God is not man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it? Numbers 23:19

FAITH, to trust; to persuade, to draw towards anything, to conciliate; to believe, to obey, an affectionate practical confidence in the testimony of God. FAITH is a firm, cordial belief in the veracity of God, in all the declarations of His word; or a full and affectionate confidence in the certainty of those things which God has declared, and because He has declared them.

TRUST, is confidence; reliance or resting of the mind on the integrity, veracity, justice, friendship or other sound principle of another person.

So what is Sacred Trust?

Putting our trust in the Lord is a step beyond faith and it is acting out what you believe in your heart. When my mother was so very sick, I prayed for her always and trusted her care to the hands of the Lord and by His blessing, she came home to stay with us for nearly 8 months and recuperated until she was ready to go to her home. I learned during and after that time much about myself in that I trusted her care to the Lord, but I withheld trust when it came to myself and so I continued to struggle by my not surrendering fully to the Lord.

Faith without action (without trust) is truly like no faith at all, the trust we place in the Lord is Sacred Trust: it comes to us by fully believing that He will do what He says and says what He will do! WE place all control, all fear, all doubts with Him because He was the one who called us to Himself, He was the one who ransomed us, He was the one who promised to see us through to the end of our journey on earth or of time- whichever comes to us first. He alone is the one who is worthy of our all praise; for the things that He has done, those taking place today, and of those yet to come!

Today, if I may, I encourage you to give it all to Jesus; it will change your life in ways that you would never have believed possible. Doing this will not make life always necessarily easier; but it will surely make life fuller and more exciting than imaginable.

Our God is so good all the time and all the time He is so good!

Place your trust in the Lord and He will show you the way, He will show you the truth, and He will light the path that He has set before you displaying the possibilities in the life that He has gifted to you!

You, must ask for an increase in your faith: do this by seeking the Lord and then after counseling with Him put into action what He has shown you and use the gifts that He has given you to bless others by. Always love the Lord your God with all of you heart, all of your soul, all of your strength and all of your mind! With all of yourself! Keep nothing back, but, by letting go and throw yourself into his arms just as a child would who runs to their Father when they have need or they are so excited to see him; because in their eyes he is the only one who can meet their needs, and love them- like no other can.

Sacred trust is your faith in action: then guard your heart against all that would seek to draw you from Him.
